FEATURED EXHIBITIONS

Picasso Ceramics from the Rosenbaum Collection

10.24.2026–2.28.2027

Picasso Ceramics from the Rosenbaum Collection explores a lesser-known chapter of Pablo Picasso's career, showcasing 63 prints and ceramics from his post-1947 output, drawn from Marvin Rosenbaum's 600-plus piece collection. Archival photos and interactive elements reveal his process and collaboration with the Madoura pottery in Vallauris, France.

Picasso Ceramics from the Rosenbaum Collection is organized by Landau Traveling Exhibitions, Los Angeles, CA, with contributions from Bowers Museum and guest curator Dr. Salvador Haro González. Xiaoze Xie: Reimagining the Library Cave at Dunhuang

12.12.2026–4.25.2027

Xiaoze Xie: Reimagining the Library Cave at Dunhuang is the first U.S. museum showing of the artist's eight-year project reimagining Dunhuang's legendary manuscript cave. The exhibition blends ink painting, sculpture, video, and VR around a monumental fifteen-part scroll, curated by Dr. Tianlong Jiao of Bowers Museum.

Xiaoze Xie: Reimagining the Library Cave at Dunhuang is organized by Bowers Museum and on loan from the artist. Major support for the exhibition is provided by Assumpta (Amy) Kiang and Nancy Xu. The exhibition catalogue is made possible by The Lou Foundation and Yilan Zhao.
